ABOUT ME

As a 3rd-year Software Engineering student at Erciyes University, I am advancing my career in Full-Stack Web Development (ASP.NET) and Artificial Intelligence. During my internship at Tema Yazılım Otomasyon, I gained practical experience in both front-end and back-end programming, mastering fundamental software development processes. Complementing this technical background, my international work experience in the USA via the J1 Exchange Program significantly elevated my language and cultural adaptation skills. I am currently focused on developing personal web projects to translate my expertise into tangible solutions.
